By the way, once your wife is better and money's are better for you guys, we should talk more about turning her policy into a whole life also. I know we've talked about it in the past, but because she has that term policy, she can convert it and she won't have to re-qualify medically on it. My prayers are with you and Stephanie. Hope it is treated quickly.

One last note, I noticed the beneficiary on your policy is your parents and vice versa on Stephanie's it's her parents, would you like to update that to each other?? If so, I can have the paperwork ready for you to sign when you come here.

We can cut the check from here for the $5500, would you like to stop by and get it or would you like me to mail it?
